

AIR LIQUIDE NOISE CONCERNS

As Air Liquide moves forward towards the start-up and operation of its Port Neches facility expansion there have been concerns expressed by the community regarding increase noise level associated with the activity. Air Liquide values our relationship with the community and sincerely regrets any inconvenience you have experienced. In an effort to understand our potential impact on the community directly from you, a contact form has been developed so that you may provide your comments and concerns directly to Air Liquide. To access the site please go to <https://industry.airliquide.us/port-neches-information>. Thank you again for your support.